

What happens if my Hydrawise controller loses internet access?

If your controller loses internet connectivity for more than one day, we'll send you an email notification. During this time, your controller will run the last synced schedule in offline mode.

NOTE: Without internet connectivity, your controller won't be able to automatically modify its watering schedule based on weather forecasts.