

Does the controller remember its settings if it loses power?

Yes. The controller will remember all your data, including watering schedules, reports, and system settings. When the controller powers back on, it will automatically reconnect to your Wi-Fi network.

The Hunter HC controller does not require a battery. All data is stored on its flash memory.